San Antonians Going East via Southwest

Southwest Airlines announces daily non-stop to Nashville & Orlando

San Antonio, TX – The San Antonio International Airport (SAT) is pleased to announce the addition of two more destinations to the growing list of nonstop flights out of the Alamo city. Beginning February 5, 2006 San Antonians will now be able to catch a direct flight to Nashville's Grand Ole Opry as well as the Sunshine State via Southwest Airlines. The two destinations out of the Alamo City are among 49 new flights in 42 city-pairs that Southwest will be launching through 2006.

SAT and Southwest will connect travelers to Nashville's International Airport (BNA) and Orlando's International Airport (MCO), making the nonstop flights to both cities a total of two each. Southwest Airlines will maintain the following schedule to each destination:

From San Antonio (SAT) to Nashville (BNA)

Departs	Arrives
XX	XX

From San Antonio (SAT) to Orlando (MCO)

Departs	Arrives
XX	XX

The new flights to Nashville and Orlando bring SAT's total number of nonstop flights to 33 with these two flights beginning in 2006.
